Park Clean Up

Mitch wanted to ride his bike to the park. He asked his mom to let him go. His mom said "As long as you wear your helmet when you are riding". Mitch happily wore his helmet and rode his bike to the park.

In the park, he saw a lot of people holding garbage bags. A lot of his friends were there and so were some of his teachers.

His friend, Estella said, "Everyone is pitching in and cleaning the park today." She said to Mitch "Would you like to join?" Mitch replied "sure" and took a garbage bag.

All around the park there was garbage. Mitch picked up candy wrappers, juice pouches, newspapers and apple cores. After an hour, he had filled three garbage bags. His friends filled a lot of garbage bags too.

After about four hours, everybody was finished. The teachers loaded the garbage bags in the pick-up truck. The park looked great. They put up signs around the park that read, "Please place garbage in garbage cans and help keep the park clean."

Onion Soup

Mrs. Brown grew a great big onion. Every day, Mrs. Brown watered her onion. Winter came. "It's time to make my famous onion soup," said Mrs. Brown. She dug up her onion with a bulldozer, and cut off its top with a chain-saw. "I'm tired out after all this onion work," said Mrs. Brown. "I will make my soup in the morning."

In the night, Mrs. Brown woke up. It was Burglar Bony and his burglar gang. "Oh!" cried Mrs. Brown. "It's no use screaming. We are after your money." Growled Big Burglar Bony. "You burglars are looking thin," said Mrs. Brown. "Would you like me to make a pot of my onion soup?"

"Yes," shouted the burglars. Mrs. Brown began to peel her great big onion. She cried a little. The burglars cried like garden hoses. Mrs. Brown began to slice her onion. She cried a little. The burglars cried like floods and thunder storms.

"Run! Run!" cried Big Burglar Bony. "Run away from Mrs. Brown and her onion." All the burglars run away. Mrs. Brown smiled a little. Then she went on making her famous onion soup.
